NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

AT Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.

Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Good's

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 50 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cents per yard; wont you look at them at 10 cents? and cant you afford to buy them at 12½c.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed a-long
The listning winds received the song.

COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Cant find them? Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them, 8, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

All right; Prices right; Styles right; and did you know that Creech's is the place to buy hats right? Come and look.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands, and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR
JAMES H. MOORE, Assistant and Local Editor.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1870.

HON. BEDFORD BROWN.

We publish elsewhere a letter from Hon. Bedford Brown. It was far from our intention to put this distinguished patriot and statesman in a false or indelicate position before the public. We had something to do with his visit to Washington; there was no man of good heart or honest purpose in the State who was not rejoiced at his going, and approved it heartily.

A distinguished Republican, some time before the election, wrote us from Washington all about the Holden-Pool-Abbott conspiracy against the people of the State, and their purpose to carry the election by the sword. This Republican suggested that a committee of gentlemen be sent from this State to confer with the President and disabuse his mind of the false impressions made on it by Pool, Holden, Settle and Company. We submitted the letter to Gen. M. W. Ransom, Judge Merrimon, Gov. Bragg, Judge Battle and other friends, who agreed on the propriety of sending Gov. Graham, Mr. Brown and others to see the President in regard to North Carolina affairs.

Before letters could reach all the gentlemen suggested, it was announced that the President would leave Washington to be present at a trotting match at Long Branch, or somewhere else, and Mr. Brown went on immediately, in advance of Gen. Ransom and Gov. Graham who had been applied to to go with him.

It was hardly necessary for us to have said this much in explanation. Every good man in the State rejoiced at the action of Mr. Brown, when the peace, good order and safety of the State were so violently imperiled by Kirk, Holden and Burgin with their army of desperadoes.

"HERE'S YOUR MULE."

Mr. Phillips, radical candidate for the Legislature in this county, is reported to us as appearing at Lashley's Cross Roads, on Wednesday, mounted upon a mule.—Sheriff High saw him next day, at Holly Springs, on the same animal.

An old colored man complained heavily, that "Mr. Phillips had jined the party since 'fodder pulling time,' and he had been in it from de fust, yet Mr. Phillips had dun got his mule while he (the old darkey) had got nothin." We can only say to the old colored voter that "kissing goes by favors." Mr. Phillips went in for the kissing,—or the office. We second the proposition of a friend at the "protracted meeting," Thursday night, namely, if Mr. Phillips is beaten for the Legislature, to run him on the Radical ticket for constable at the next city election. He already has the mule; he must ride him into some office.

If Mr. Phillips got the mule through the party; or if it was sent on from Washington, "right side up, with care, freight paid," with the $6000, to aid in carrying Joe through this election, we suggest that, as soon as the election is over, Mr. Phillips ought to turn the mule over to Friday Jones, Farriss, or John Sears, to graze on capitol square until another campaign should require its services.

The white rads ought not to take all the money and the mules, too, from the negroes. The negroes don't think this fair; and either envy of Mr. Phillips and his mule, or something else, prevented the negroes turning out to hear him at Holly Springs. There were only four colored men and twenty one white—all told—including Tim Lee and ex-Sheriff High, out to hear Mr. Phillips at Holly Springs, and every one of the white men, except Timothy, will vote against Mr. Phillips and for Dr. Dunn.

The effects of the war and reconstruction are sad indeed upon the country. The war demoralized and corrupted the virtue of many; reconstruction demoralized many more. Gen. Longstreet, Gen. Clingman, Gen. Phil. Hawkins, Gen. Barringer, Gen. Wiley D. Jones, Capt. Settle, Sergeant Joe, Quartermaster Rodman, and Attorney General Phillips, have all been shaken by it.—Let Mr. Phillips, who stood the war better than he can stand reconstruction, ride his mule in peace through the campaign; and when the race is ended, as it will be today, whether successful or unsuccessful, let him, without any more personal reference to himself than he can possibly avoid, cry out to his friends, "here's your mule!"

LEGISLATURE

In the House yesterday, after the introduction of a resolution to elect an Enrolling Clerk, a memorial was presented contesting the seat of Mr. Rollins of Madison, by a Mr. Kelsey of that county. After some discussion a committee of seven was appointed to take the subject into consideration and report to-day.

Mr. Welch offered a resolution raising a special Committee of five to investigate the Alamance and Caswell outrages, which took its place on the calendar.

The bill to abolish the office of State Printer was taken up on a suspension of the rules, and passed, including a clause to raise a joint Committee to arrange for the public printing.

In the Senate the most remarkable feature was the presentation of a memorial from Chief Justice Pearson, vindicating his course in the late Habeas corpus cases, the reading of which was arrested by objection being raised, there being no charge pending against him before the body.

AMNESTY AND PARDON.

Gov. Holden, who asked for the head of "Abe Lincoln," which was subsequently taken off by Booth, is now proposing amnesty to the rebels. Several Conservatives have been offered positions recently by those having the power of appointment.—Dr. Murphy, the Senator from Sampson, was tendered and promptly and properly refused to accept an appointment on the Insane Asylum Board. Gentlemen of this city have been tendered places in the Deaf and Dumb Institution, and other public institutions.

But, Governor, these propositions can't buy off impeachment!

One of your bosom friends has stated in a public manner, that Dr. Murphy would not vote to impeach. He knew that you had tendered him an appointment, but he didn't know the Doctor, or he would not have made the declaration.

Go on with your amnesty, Governor, but President Grant is ahead of you. It is said his coming message will recommend universal amnesty. You see then, it will be very poor stock for you to trade in to avoid impeachment.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Nov. 25, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Henry Epps, col., Senator elect from the 6th Senatorial District, presented his credentials and was qualified.

MEMORIAL.

Mr. Flemming presented a memorial from Chief Justice Pearson, setting forth, That there had been imputations of venality and corruption charged against him. The ground, if any, for such charges, The motives which actuated the memorialist, and that the same be spread upon the Journals, in order to perpetuate the evidence to calmer days, when party strife shall have, in a measure, ceased, and individual ardour abated.

Mr. Flemming said that it might be proper for him to make some explanation why he felt no hesitancy in presenting the memorial, while there was much said and many rumors relative to impeachment.—Being fully aware that this body was to be the judge in case the House should present such charges. Some Senators might feel a delicacy in taking any action or pseudo action in the matter whatever, but that he held that the humblest individual in North Carolina had a right to petition or memorialize the General Assembly, and should this right be denied to any, though he be the highest judical officer? He should not, therefore, feel that he would be in any way committed nor should be consider that he had, in the slightest degree, expressed an opinion upon any matter or question that might be presented for the consideration of the Senate, either in its legislative or judicary capacity. Nor had he expressed any opinion as to the propriety of spreading the same upon the Journals, and moved that it be read, no objection being made the Clerk proceed to read, after the reading had proceeded for some length.

Mr. Warren appeared in his seat and moved that the further reading of the document be suspended, with a view to laying it upon the table, and gave as his reason for this motion that it didn't appear to be in any sense a petition but was a vindication of the conduct of the Chief Justice in advance of accusation. No charges have been made against him and that it was premature and improper to hear his defence. If perchance accusation should be made of which we could know nothing, now then would be the proper occasion for him to ask a hearing. That he could not understand why this document was thrust upon us by the Chief Justice unless it was his purpose to induce us to prejudge his case.

Considerable discussion ensued.

Messrs. Gilmer, W. M. Robbins, F. C. Robbins, Dargan, McClammy and Merrimon followed in support of the position assumed by Mr. Warren.

Mr. Allen took the position that it was proper that the memorial should be read, but would vote to table it when the reading had concluded.

Mr. Flemming signified his desire to withdraw the memorial if permitted to do so. Mr. Warren withdrew his motion to table and the document was withdrawn.

Numerous notices of bills were given.

FROM THE HOUSE.

A message was received from the House proposing to go into the election of Enrolling Clerk at 11 o'clock, which was concurred in.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Gilmer: To incorporate the People's Building and Loan Association of the town of Salem; referred.

By Mr. Warren: To amend the charter of the town of Washington. On motion the rules were suspended and the bill was put on its several readings, it passed its second reading, when

G. W. Price, (colored) moved to amend the 4th section (which designated Registrars of Elections) so as to provide that the County Commissioners shall appoint the Registrars. The amendment was rejected and the bill passed its third reading.

By Mr. Speed. To amend the charter of the town of Elizabeth City. On his motion the rules were suspended in order to put the bill on its several readings. The bill passed its first reading and

Mr. Moore of Carteret opposed its passage on the ground that it was unconstitutional, and moved to lay it on the table. After some discussion the motion prevailed.

By Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg: To appoint a Commissioner to take election depositions in the Senatorial District composed of Granville and Pearson counties; placed on Calendar.

By Mr. Worth: To enlarge the powers of County Commissioners. Referred.

ENROLLING CLERK.

The Senate proceeded to execute the joint order, to wit: Election of Enrolling Clerk. Dr. Wilson, of Haywood, received a majority of the whole number of votes cast and was declared elected.

ENGROSSING CLERK.

The Senate agreed to go forthwith into the election of Engrossing Clerk. Capt. Mast, of Forsyth, received a majority of the whole number of votes cast and was declared duly elected.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Love: A joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to purchase a sufficient amount of stationery necessary for the use of the General Assembly for the next 30 days, which passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

By Mr. Smith, of Alamance: A resolution for the relief of Albert Murray, Sheriff of Alamance, which was amended and passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

On motion of Mr. Dargan, a Committee of three were appointed to make rules for the government of the Senate and to co-operate with a joint Committee on rules for both Houses.

The President designated Messrs. Dargan, Lehman and Graham, as the Committee.

By Mr. Lehman: A resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to furnish the Senate Library with 10 copies of the laws of 1869-'70, which was adopted.

By Mr. Leman: Resolution requesting the President of the Senate to invite the Ministry to open the session with prayer. Adopted.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Nov. 25, 1870.

Pursuant to adjournment, the House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Speaker Jarvis in the Chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Nicholson of the House.

After the reading of the journal, Messrs. Darden and Regan appeared, qualified and took their seats.

Messrs. Lucas and Sykes were announced as being detained from their seats by sickness.

BILLS.

By Mr. Gregory: A bill to abolish the office of State Printer and for other purposes.

By Mr. Justice: A bill to fix the per diem and mileage of the members of the General Assembly. (The bill provides $5 per day for presiding officers of the two Houses and $3 per day for members, Clerks and Doorkeepers, and fixes the mileage at 10 cents per mile.)

The bill was ordered to be referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees when raised.

Mr. York gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill in reference to salaries and fees.

On motion of Mr. Welch, a message was sent to the Senate, that the House would go into the election of an Enrolling Clerk at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, presented a memorial from Mr. Kelsey of Madison, setting forth the illegality of the certificate of the present member from that county, (Mr. Rollins.)

Mr. Johnston moved that the memorial and accompanying documents be referred to a special committee of 5 with instructions to report to-morrow morning.

Mr. Justice moved to amend, by referring the matter to the committee on Privileges and Elections when raised.

Mr. Johnston objected to the amendment on the ground that much unnecessary, delay would ensue if such a course was adopted. He thought his proposition would be acceptable to both the gentlemen interested, as speedy justice would be rendered.

Mr. Crawford also favored a speedy adjustment of this matter. He thought that a sound economy dictated an immediate settlement of all such cases. He could not, he gave notice, that if this case was allowed to linger day after day, vote per diem and mileage for both members. He thought while justice should be strictly meeted to both gentlemen, the interest of the State should be properly looked after, &c.

Mr. Johnston concurred heartily with Mr. Crawford as to the economy that should be exercised in such cases and regarded it as a most powerful reason why his proposition should be concurred in.

Mr. Justice demanded the yeas and nays on his amendment. The call was sustained and the amendment rejected, by a vote of yeas 33, nays 61.

Mr. Crawford moved then to increase the number of the committee to 7.

Mr. Johnston accepted the amendment and the original motion as amended was then adopted.

The report of the Code Commissioners was presented and read.

The Chair announced Messrs. Dunham, Harris of Franklin, Crawford, Justice, Broadfoot, Gregory and Darden as the committee on the Madison contested election matter.

By Mr. McAffee: A bill in favor of J. Q. Bridges, Tax Collector of Cleaveland county.

On motion of the same the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

A message was received from the Senate concurring in the proposition to go into the election of an Enrolling Clerk.

By Mr. Welch: A resolution raising a special Committee of five, to investigate the outrages and intimidation practiced upon the people of Alamance county by an armed band, both before and during the election. The resolution took its place on the Calendar.

Mr. Ashe gave notice that he would on to-morrow introduce a bill in reference to the city of Wilmington.

By the same: A bill declaratory of the meaning of the act entitled "An act to repeal certain acts passed at the session of 1868 and 1869, making appropriations to certain Railroad Companies, ratified 8th of March 1870."

The bill was read and placed on the Calendar.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting the annual report of Dr. E. Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum.

The report was referred to the Committee on the Insane Asylum.

Mr. Welch wished to know by what authority the printing of the Code Commission report and the report of the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, was done.—He thought the proper manner was to present the reports and then the House would take such steps in regard to the matter as it thought proper. He wished to see this extravagance checked. Our people were too poor and had been too much imposed upon to allow a set of men, now to crowd the desks of members with a mass of printed matter for which the people are heavily taxed to pay for. Mr. W. concluded by moving to suspend the rules and take from the calendar the bill to abolish the office of State Printer. The motion was put to a vote and adopted.

[The bill provides for the abolishment of the office and the raising of a joint select Committee, two from the House and one from the Senate, whose duty it shall be to award the contract to some responsible party.]

Mr. Justice moved the addition of a proviso, that the Committee should award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

Mr. Strudwick thought the members of that Committee would be men of integrity and would take ample care of the interest of the State, and he opposed the tying of their hands. The adoption of such a proviso would be a reflection upon the honesty and capability of the gentlemen who might be appointed on such Committee.

Mr. Waring concurred with Mr. Strudwick.

Mr. Welch favored the proviso.

During the discussion, the hour set apart for the election of an Enrolling Clerk arrived and the matter under consideration was dropped.

Mr. Welch nominated W. J. Wilson of Haywood, for the position.

Mr. Morris nominated W. D. Whitted of Henderson.

A ballot was taken which resulted in the election of Mr. Wilson by a vote of 62 to 31. In the Senate Mr. Wilson received 38 and Mr. Whitted 11. Mr. Wilson was declared duly elected.

The discussion of the bill abolishing the office of State Printer was resumed.

Mr. Welch again took the floor in advocacy of Mr. Justice's Proviso.

Messrs. Gregory opposed the proviso.

Mr. Martin favored it.

Mr. Hill moved to postpone and make the matter special order for Monday 12 o'clock.

Mr. Jones of Lenoir moved to lay the matter on the table.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion lay on the table was rejected by a vote of yeas 7 nays 89.

The question recurred on Mr. Hill's motion to make special order.

The motion was put to a vote and rejected.

Mr. Justice called the previous question on his proviso. The call was sustained.

The yeas and nays were called and the proviso was adopted by a vote of yeas 81 nays 17.

Mr. Settle moved an additional proviso that the Public Printing shall not be awarded to parties connected with those making such exhorbitant charges for the past two years.

Mr. Welch opposed the proviso, on the ground that it was too proscriptive. He thought it bad policy.

The yeas and nays were called and the proviso was rejected by a vote of 19 to 79.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the bill was amended by making the Committee 5 instead of 3.

Mr. Gregory called the previous question on the bill as amended. The call was sustained and the bill passed its second and third readings.

On motion the House adjourned.

SOMETIME since an announcement extraordinary was made by the SENTINEL, man, that he knew of twelve orders having been given our Milliners in one day for Bridal Bonnets, and expressed some surprise at the number &c.

Our friend Moore was not in the secret. I propose now to tell him and every body else, that it was not surprising at all.

Every one of these happy Bridegrooms were patrons of Pink C. Hardie, and purchased their Cigars and Tobacco of him, which imparted a fragrance to the breath which was perfectly irresistable. Sozondont is nowhere.

Every body knows what a horrible scent is imparted by a horrible Cigar or Chew, "such as I dont keep" and no one discovers it sooner than the ladies.

Now a word to all who contemplate matrimony. Be wise in time and give no occasion for your rejection by purchasing your Cigars and Tobacco from

We learn that R. Kingsland, Esq., having resigned as Secretary of the North Carolina Land Company, William Scott, Esq., has been appointed to the office.

N. C. CONFERENCE.—This body met in Greensboro' on Wednesday, but we have nothing yet in regard to the proceedings. The Patriot of the 24th has nothing of them. We will give a synopsis of the proceedings of the Conference as soon as we can procure them.

AGED.—A colored woman named Jane Shaw, died in Wilmington on Monday night last, aged 123 years, having been born on the 11th of January 1747. She had spent her whole life in Wilmington.

Miss Francis Campbell died in Tarboro' on Saturday 19th inst., aged 88 years.

A NUISANCE.—The editor of the Greensboro' Patriot, who was in Raleigh last week, complains of the noise, the bawling, the pulling and hauling, of the porters, on the arrival of the cars at this station. He says, "They block up the doors of the cars, block up the passage on the platform, tread on your toes, and bawl in your ears loud and long enough to distract you."—This is all true, and we have long thought it would be a good thing, if it can be done, to abate the nuisance in some way or other. It would certainly be a great relief to passengers to be saved from the annoyance alluded to.

CORRECTION.—In our notice of the Lee Memorial observances on yesterday morning, we stated that Wm. G. Hill Lodge of Masons formed a part of the procession. This was a mistake; it was Hiram Lodge, No. 40.

FENNER SATCHELL, Esq., Sheriff of Beaufort county, the man who beat Marshal Carrow for Sheriff, was in town this week, looking hale and hearty. He came up to bring one of the citizens of the county who voted for Mr. Carrow in the election, to board in the Penitentiary for a term of five years, in accordance with a sentence of the late Superior Court for that county.

PIANO NOTICE.—Mr. F. W. Walter, well known from former visits as the agent for Wm. Knabe & Co's. Pianos is now in town. Persons desiring his services should apply at once. Orders may be left at the Exchange Hotel or Post Office.

The beautiful weather we had been enjoying for a short spell was superceded, yesterday, by lowering clouds, rain and a good supply of mud.

We cheerfully comply with the request to direct attention of all who wear shoes, including the members of the Legislature, to the card of Mr. D. C. Murray in to-day's SENTINEL. A good fitting boot, shoe or gaiter, is a very material part of a full dress, and adds greatly to one's comfort.

Also, read the other new ads. this morning.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY DEALERS.—We alluded a few days ago, to the reception, by a gentleman of this city, of a letter from some scoundrel in New York, proposing to send him $1,000 in counterfeit money for $10, or $2,500 for $25. We also published a copy of the letter.

We have seen numbers of these letters before, and no doubt hundreds of them have been sent out to persons in this State of which no public notice has ever been taken.

As throwing some light on this swindling operation, we may mention that several members of a firm of these pretended dealers in counterfeit greenbacks were recently arrested in New York and had an examination before U. S. Commissioner, Davenport. Several witnesses were examined, among them the confidential Clerk of the firm, from whose evidence it appears that when they received orders for packages of counterfeit money, they filled a box with sawdust—sometimes with kindling wood—with a note of good advice, and forwarded it to their correspondent. The following is a copy they enclosed in the box of saw dust to their dupes, as testified to by the Clerk:

SIR: The only counterfeit money we deal in is in this box. If you wish to buy counterfeit money, we can assure you we do not deal in counterfeit money, as we have no desire to spend ten or fifteen years of our life in State Prison. If you deal in it you will surely go to State Prison sooner or later; and my advice is for you never to touch it. Go home and endeavor hereafter to get your living honestly.

Respectfully,

S. BERTIXI.

The accused acknowledged on the examination, that they were engaged in a swindling business, but denied that they had anything to do with counterfeiting or passing counterfeit money. They usually forwarded from twenty to thirty boxes of their saw dust or kindling wood per day, to applicants for packages of counterfeit money, throughout the country.

Their counsel moved for their discharge, there having been no evidence adduced to prove that they had made or uttured counterfeit money, but the Commissioner refused, and ordered them back into confinement to go before the Grand Jury.

Wonder if any one in this section has ever received one of their boxes of saw dust?

For the Sentinel.

CASWELL COUNTY, Nov. 16, 1870.

Editor of the Sentinel:

SIR—In your issue of the Semi-Weekly SENTINEL of Wednesday, the 26th of October, the following passage occurs in an article headed "overthrow of violence," viz: "Hon. Bedford Brown took upon himself to visit the President and inform him of the true condition of things. The truth, told by Mr. Brown, only aroused the anger of the President." On reading this article I was quite sure that you did not intend to convey the idea that I was a self-appointed agent in relation to the late state of things in the counties of Caswell and Alamance, or that I received personal discourtesy from the President, supposing the words in regard to myself to have been used in the haste of writing an editorial article. With this impression I decided not to call your attention to it. Since then, I understand, it has been regarded as susceptible of a different construction, which, I repeat, I am sure you did not intend, and hence, I consider it a simple act of justice to myself, to trouble you with a brief recital of the facts and circumstances connected with my visit to Washington, and some reflections connected with the subject matter thereof, and respectfully to ask the publication of this communication.

Soon after the commencement of the military outrages in the county of Alamance, and a few days before the then threatened outrages which afterwards occurred in Caswell, the Hon. Giles Mebane called upon me and said he had been in Alamance and conversed with a number of the citizens of Caswell also, and that a general wish was expressed that Governor Graham and myself should proceed to Washington and represent to the President the true condition of this portion of the country. A few days afterwards, at a very large meeting of citizens, at Yanceyville, this request was unanimously concurred in by the friends of peace and order.—Kirk's troops having arrived the same day and having perpetrated the grossest outrages. In this state of things, I immediately prepared to leave for Washington, earnestly hoping to be joined by Gov. Graham, a gentleman whose high character and distinguished public service entitle him to so much weight, in any capacity, he may be called to act, and much regretted, that imperative public duties prevented his co operation. Having reached Washington late in the evening, and learning from the newspapers, that the President intended leaving next morning, I determined at once, to call on him, that night, which I did about eight o'clock, and being out of office hours, doubted if I would be received; my card, however, was responded to favorably. After the usual salutations I opened the subject of my visit, which he listened to attentively and courteously, the conversation continuing for some time afterwards. I soon however, perceived that very erroneous impressions had been made on his mind, in regard to the true state of things in Caswell and Alamance, and that any effort to remove them, would be unavailing. The particulars of this conversation, I will not lengthen this communication by detailing. Sufficient to say, that there was a marked difference between my views of constitutional liberty and those of the President. It is proper to add, that he consented to the request made through me by the citizens of Caswell, for the United States troops to remain then stationed there, it was believed that they would be a protection to the people of the county, as it so resulted, and I will take the occasion to say, that their conduct was highly honorable and gentlemanly, leaving a very favorable impression on our citizens.

In connection with this subject, I will say, that much misrepresentation has gone abroad, in reference to the citizens of this county, regarding certain acts of violence committed some time since, in its limits. So far from having sanctioned them, they met with strong and most decided condemnation by the great mass of the citizens. For more than a half a century past, the Court records will compare favorably with any county in or out of the State—the county often having received complimentary notice from the Judges who presided over its Courts.

It is but a simple act of justice to myself and those most intimately associated with me, to say, that we have for years past, on all suitable occasions, in private conversations and public addresses declared for the observance of law and order and denounced lawlessness and all secret societies, having for their object a breach of the peace, as dangerous to society and republican government.

Again, in connection with this subject, I will further remark, that the suspension of that great writ of right, the "habeas corpus," I regard as the most dangerous result of all others, on the liberty of the citizens. President Madison even during the war of 1812 with Great Britain, assailed by land and sea as we were by that formidable power aided by her Red Allies, with the threatened secession of the New England States and strong British sympathies in many of the States, North and South, did not call on Congress to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. The late gallant General Jesup, so distinguished in the Canada campaign, informed me that during the sitting of the Hartford Convention in 1814—the war then going on—he was confidentially despatched by Mr. Madison to observe their movements and if any overt act had been committed, that it was the purpose of President Madison to put the civil law against treason, in force and if it could not be enforced, then, to call the military in aid of it. Fortunately, no overt act was committed. This shows the views of one of our ablest and purest Statesmen. It is a power that I do not believe should be given to any Executive in any Constitution either in peace or war, except as applicable to those in the military service.—While full vigor should be given to the federal government, yet too much centralization is dangerous and the reserved rights of the States should be respected. Our federal system, is the best ever devised by the wisdom of man, if properly carried out.

The noble and patriotic sentiments, which we learn from authentic sources, were uttered by the late eminently distinguished General Lee, recommending the cessation of sectional prejudices, the cultivation of a spirit of harmony and conciliation, saying that we should recollect that we are now one people and all Americans will, I most sincerely trust, greatly contribute, to restore that good feeling between the sections of the union, so indispensable to their peace and happiness, and to the success of the great principle, that man is capable of self government.

Very respectfully
and truly yours,
BEDFORD BROWN.

For the Sentinel.

Editor of the Sentinel: My attention has been called to an editorial in the Standard of a recent date, in which the imputation is made that I had colluded with some one or more persons to defeat the election of W. P. Welch, Esq., to the Speakership of the House of Representatives. Lest there may be some misapprehension hereafter, I beg to say through your paper, that such charge is utterly groundless.

A. S. MERRIMON.

Raleigh, Nov. 25, 1870.

TO-DAY.

The vote of to-day will settle the question of who shall represent us during the remainder of the 41st Congress, Joseph W. Holden, who approved and endorsed the outrages in this State, last summer, committed by Gov. Holden, Kirk and Burgen, or John Manning Jr., who is and was opposed to this and all the other extravagant and dishonest doings of the party now in power; and whether S. F. Phillips or Dr. Dunn shall fill the vacancy in the House of Representatives from Wake, made by the death of Mr. Henderson Hodge. The time for talking and writing is past; to day is the day for action. We hope every Conservative Democrat in the county and district will feel the importance of the occasion and act accordingly. If our candidates are defeated, it will be on account of the neglect and apathy of our own friends.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!!—Our people, owing to the great convenience of getting them, are becoming to be almost as much an oyster eating community as Norfolk, Portsmouth or Suffolk. There is, though, a great difference in oysters; as great as there is between a good mellow pippin and a knotty seedling. We don't intend to intimate that any of our oyster dealers keep sorry ones, but Mr. J. A. Rogers, on Wilmington street, North of Hargett, keeps excellent oysters; fresh, fat and luscious. He gets them every evening, and will furnish them to his customers in any quantity, on the orders being left with him during the day.

CAN'T WET YOUR WHISTLE.—We believe it is according to law to close all drinking establishments on election day. If the regulation applies in the election to-day, there will be many a dry throat before Monday.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10.000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 100,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PRESS A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet; Size Bale 4½ feet x36x36in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividens annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Defaults surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurance, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $31,091,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
